

DEWEY B. STUIT AWARD FOR A FIRST-YEAR HONORS STUDENT IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

This $1,500 award is for a first-year honors student who has demonstrated outstanding academic performance, shows promise of continued excellence, and who will graduate from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. First-year students who are technically sophomores may apply. Applicants must be full-time students during the 2009–10 academic year and have a GPA of 3.75 or above to be eligible for the award. One recipient of the Dewey B. Stuit Award for a First-year Honors Student will be selected by a faculty committee and recognized on Sunday, April 26, 2009 at the Honors Program Recognition Ceremony.

All materials, including the faculty letter, are due by 5:00 p.m. on or before Friday, January 30, 2009 at the University of Iowa Honors Program, 420 Blank Honors Center.

CHECKLIST OF APPLICATION MATERIALS

- All application materials must be typed and include your name in the upper right-hand corner of each page.
- Please submit FOUR complete copies of your application (one original and three photocopies, collated in the order listed), each of which includes the following. Fasten sets with a paper clip or binder clip—do not staple.
  - A completed application form. Please do not send instruction sheets.
Be sure to include the following:
    - ◆ List of honors courses you have taken.
  - The essay requested on the application form.
  - A UI transcript that shows all UI course work, including Fall 2008 semester grades (ISIS print-outs are acceptable; degree evaluations are not) and a transcript from any other college at which you completed 12 or more semester hours (photocopies are okay).
  - A list of courses you will be taking during the Spring 2009 semester.
  - A list of your extracurricular activities at The University of Iowa and during your last two years of high school. Please list the university and high school activities separately. Be sure to include:
    - 1) special academic experiences (e.g., travel or study abroad, internships, independent research, research and teaching practicums, assistantships, etc.);
    - 2) honors activities and other relevant activities in which you have participated;
    - 3) work experience; and
    - 4) awards you have received.

Be specific with your descriptions. If you are working on a research project, indicate how many hours a week and for whom you are working. If you have a job, indicate how many hours a week you are working and the nature of the job.
  - One letter of recommendation from a professor or instructor and the recommendation cover sheet. We suggest that you provide a copy of your application, essay, transcript, and activities list to the person you are asking for a letter. Please give your recommender plenty of time to prepare the letter. We do not need multiple copies of the faculty letter.
