MARSHALL SCHOLARSHIP*
Interested students must apply at the campus level and chosen to represent the University of Iowa in the national competition. For more information about applying for campus nomination, click here.

Marshall Scholarships finance young Americans of high ability to study for a graduate degree in the United Kingdom. Up to forty Scholars are selected each year to study at graduate level at an UK institution in any field of study. As future leaders, with a lasting understanding of British society, Marshall Scholars strengthen the enduring relationship between the British and American peoples, their governments and their institutions. Marshall Scholars are talented, independent and wide-ranging, and their time as Scholars enhances their intellectual and personal growth. Opportunity site: http://www.marshallscholarship.org/

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Interested students must apply at the campus level and chosen to represent the University of Iowa in the national competition. For more information about applying for campus nomination, click here.

The Rhodes Scholarships, the oldest of the international fellowships, were initiated after the death of Cecil Rhodes in 1902, and aim to bring outstanding students from around the world to live and study at the University of Oxford. Rhodes Scholars are elected for two years of study with the possibility of renewal for a third year. The award covers all educational costs, including matriculation, tuition, laboratory and certain other fees. Each Scholar receives an additional maintenance allowance to meet necessary expenses for term-time and vacations. The Rhodes Trustees also cover the necessary costs of travel to and from Oxford, and upon application, may approve additional grants.

The George J. Mitchell Scholarship Program, named to honor former US Senator George Mitchell’s pivotal contribution to the Northern Ireland peace process, is designed to introduce and connect generations of future American leaders to the island of Ireland, while recognizing and fostering intellectual achievement, leadership, and a commitment to community and public service. Up to twelve Mitchell Scholars between the ages of 18 and 30 are chosen annually for one academic year of postgraduate study in any discipline offered by institutions of higher learning in Ireland (study in Northern Ireland is not currently an option through the Mitchell Scholarship). The Mitchell Scholarship Program provides tuition, accommodation, a stipend for living expenses and travel.
